

Torrance Marine Captures U.S. Rifle Match Honors

Using an M-1 service rifle instead of aerial guns, Marine Captain Kenneth J. Erdman, of Torrance, shot his way to the National Reserve Service Rifle Championship and captured the Navy Cup, both in the same day at the 1959 National Rifle Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

The aviator-marksman fired a potent 489 points with 47 shots in the tiny V-ring (dead center of the bullseye) in the five matches that make up the Service Rifle Championship to outshoot all other military reservists firing in the 1959 world series of shooting.

In the Navy Cup Match, Captain Erdman fired a perfect 100 score with nine shots in the V-ring to outshoot some 2200 of the nation's top riflemen, regular military, reservists and civilian, to keep the coveted trophy in the Navy family.

The 27-year-old Reserve Captain is a flight test engineer in the Los Angeles region of the Federal Aviation Agency. He left the Marine Corps regular service last year after a four-year tour that included service

Cal to Offer Real Estate Courses Here

Real estate courses will be offered in Torrance this fall by University of California Extension, leading to a Certificate in Real Estate for real estate brokers, salesmen, and others working in related fields.

The Certificate program, given in 18 Southern California communities, is approved by the California Real Estate Assn. and is designed to offer an opportunity to keep abreast of economic trends and legislation affecting real estate transactions.

The program also provides HIGHWAY EMPLOYEES About one-fifth of the employees of the states are normally engaged in the construction of new highways or maintenance of existing ones.

both as a jet and a transport pilot. Captain Erdman was a member of the United States International Rifle Team in 1957. He lives with his wife, Karen, at 1900 W. Artesia Blvd.

excellent refresher training and contributes in raising the standards of the real estate business, according to Karl Venter, head of the program.

Two courses will be held at Torrance's North High school, 3620 W. 182nd St., with sessions from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Beginning Sept. 22, Joseph Chase will instruct 12 meetings of a class in Real Estate Practice, and starting Sept. 24, Irving D. Shapiro will instruct 18 meetings of a class in Trends and Factors Influencing Real Estate.

The majority of courses are offered at 813 S. Hill St. in Los Angeles. Each course may be taken by itself or as part of the Certificate program. Information, registration forms, and free class bulletins may be obtained from the Hill St. Center (MAdisan 3-6123), or University of California Extension offices at UCLA (BRadshaw 2-6161, Ext. 721).
